

Fatal Injuries by Source of Injury Wisconsin 1997

Forty-three percent of all work related fatalities involved vehicles, an increase of 2% from '96. Fatalities caused by structures and surfaces decreased by 4%.

Fatal Injuries by Place of Occurrence Wisconsin 1997

Seventy-five percent of all fatal accidents occur on the farm, the streets, or at industrial sites.

Source: Based on the Bureau of Labor Statistics Classification Structure