

Brought to you by the Wisconsin State Genetics System . . .

Travelling Genetics Grand Rounds

CME/CEU Opportunities

Interested in bringing genetics expertise to your facility?
Looking for possible opportunities to earn continuing education credits?

Contact Christina Zaleski to discuss arrangements for one of the following topics to be presented at your facility:

- Alpha-1-Antitrypsin: From Bench to Bedside
- Birth Defects & Genetics
- Breast Cancer
- Diving into Ethical & Legal Issues in Genetics
- Family History-Taking: the Genetic Way
- Genetic Basis for Common Conditions & Duty to Recontact
- Genetic Considerations in the Evaluation of Joint Hypermobility
- Genetic Diagnosis & Testing
- Genetic Evaluations for Unexplained Death
- Genetic Resources for the Primary Care Provider
- Genetics & the Heart
- Hereditary Cancer Syndromes
- Integrating Genetics into Office Practice
- Personalized Medicine
- Preconception & the Young Cancer Survivor
- The Genetics of Cancer
- The Genetics of Connective Tissue Disorders
- The Genetics of Pediatric Neuromuscular Disease
- The New Genetics: Ethical, Legal, and Social Issues
- Transitions

More information regarding speakers and learning objectives can be found on the following pages. To contact Christina Zaleski, call 715-221-7407 or email Zaleski.christina@marshfieldclinic.org.